

XM traffic and weather is the only traffic report I listen to any more. It is significantly more accurate and it is always available when I need it. Being a ham radio operator I know the value of having many ways to convey news about available routes in an emergency. If you take away the ability of XM radio to broadcast traffic, you remove one option from the public in an emergency situation. Please don't take it away.

Joe Franko

KG6RUS